

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Prayer of John Chrysostom

Almighty God,
you have given us grace at this time with one accord
to make our common supplications unto you;
and you have promised through your well-beloved Son
that when two or three are gathered together in his Name
you will be in the midst of them:
Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions
as may be best for us; granting us in this world
knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Glory to God,
whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more
than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
forever and ever. Amen.

Compline for All Saints & All Souls

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. John 11.25, 26

Almighty God,
whose people are knit together in one holy Church,
the mystical Body of your Son,
grant us grace to follow your blessed saints
in lives of faith and commitment,
and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared
for those who love you;
through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Hebrews 12:1-3

Do you see what this means—all these pioneers
who blazed the way, all these veterans cheering us on?
It means we'd better get on with it. Strip down, start running—and never quit! No extra spiritual fat, no parasitic sins. Keep your eyes on Jesus, who both began and finished this race we're in. Study how he did it.
Because he never lost sight of where he was headed—that exhilarating finish in and with God—he could put up with anything along the way: Cross, shame, whatever.
And now he's there, in the place of honor, right alongside
God. When you find yourselves flagging in your faith, go over that story again, item by item, that long litany of hostility he plowed through. That will shoot adrenaline into your souls!

Candles of Remembrance

Light a candle, saying, "I thank God for the life of _____."

Responsive Reading (Ps 34 with Rev 7)

I will extol the LORD at all times;
his praise will always be on my lips. *

*They are before the throne of God and serve him
day and night in his temple.*

I will glory in the LORD; let the afflicted hear and rejoice. *
He who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence.

Glorify the LORD with me; let us exalt his name together. *
Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me;
he delivered me from all my fears. *

The sun will not beat down on them; nor any scorching heat.

Those who look to him are radiant;
their faces are never covered with shame. *

*For the Lamb at the center of the throne
will be their shepherd;*

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
and he delivers them. *

*He will lead them to springs of living water.
He will wipe away every tear from their eyes.*

Taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed is the one who takes refuge in him. *

Apostles Creed

Let us confess the faith of our baptism as we say,

I believe in God,

The Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit
and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again
to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
